

A further award for Eibach Springs

Eibach also wins the "Best Brand" readers' choice of sport auto

Tradition, innovation, reputation: hardly any other manufacturer of sport vehicle components combines these terms as successfully as Eibach from Finnentrop. This philosophy is also recognised by the readers of sport auto, who voted for the company, putting them right out in front for 2007 in the spring category, with 57.9 per cent in the renowned annual election for the "Best Brand".

The vote also confirms the result of the readers' choice in "Motorsport aktuell": here too, Eibach was given the award for the "Best Brand Springs".

This year, 11,562 sport auto readers took part in the decision for the company whose products from automobile and tuning accessories convince them best in eleven categories.

Eibach thanks all sport auto readers for their continuing support and acknowledgement. The results of the voting for the "Best Brand" can be read in sport auto No. 09/07.
